

L-2 Peter Pan

* Word Meanings

1. nursery = a room or place for little children
2. mermaids = half human, half fish
3. pirates = robbers at sea
4. dejected = very disappointed and sad
5. faith = belief
6. trust = to believe in and be sure of someone
7. Pixie = a fairy-like being, usually small
8. tailed = followed
9. jealous = envious
10. sympathetically = feeling sorry for
11. kidnap = take by force
12. homesick = not feeling good because the person is missing home
13. prisoners = people held by force
14. swooped = came downwards suddenly
15. duel = fight between two people
16. slashed = cut
17. command = charge

* Running Comprehension

1. How many children were there in the Darling family? Name them.

Q. There were three children in the Darling family. They were Wendy, Michael and John.

2. What sort of a place was Neverland?

A. Neverland was a magical place with mermaids, fairies and Pirates.

3. What did the boys love to play?

A. The boys loved playing Pirates.

4. Who was blamed for this?

A. Wendy was blamed for this.

5. Why did Peter Pan and Tinker Bell come to the nursery every night?

A. Peter Pan and Tinker Bell liked to listen to ~~the~~ Wendy's stories, so they came to the nursery every night.

6. Where did Peter Pan take the Darling children?

A. Peter Pan took all the Darling children ~~on their way~~ to Neverland.

7. What did the children need in order to fly?

A. The children needed happy thoughts, faith, trust and a bit of Tinker Bell's pixie dust to fly.

8. How did Captain Hook know when the Crocodile was near?

A. As Captain Hook could hear the tick-tock of the clock, he knew that the Crocodile was nearby.

9. Who was jealous of Wendy?

A. Tinker Bell was jealous of Wendy.

10. Why was this Person jealous of her?

Ans. Tinker Bell was jealous of Wendy because Wendy had become Peter Pan's close friend and was worried that Peter Pan started liking Wendy more than her.

Q.11. How did Captain Hook find the way to Peter Pan's house?

Ans. Captain Hook tricked Tinker Bell. He showed her a map of Neverland and in return she showed him the road to Peter's secret house.

Q.12. Why did the boys want to go home?

Ans. The boys felt homesick and wanted to go home.

Q.13. How did Peter Pan save the children?

Ans. Peter Pan came flying swiftly through the air and fought with Captain Hook and saved the children.

Q.14 What happened when Peter Pan threw Captain Hook into the water?

Ans Captain Hook was swimming for his life trying to escape from the crocodile that followed him.

Q.15. How did The children get back to London?

Ans: With happy thoughts, faith, trust and a bit of Tinker Bell's pixie dust, they all flew back to London.

Reference to Context :-

"He now had to wear a hook in place of the hand."

1. Who had to wear a hook in place of the hand?

A. Captain Hook.

2. What had happened to his hand?

Ans. Captain Hook's <sup>hand</sup> had fallen into the water and had been swallowed by a crocodile.

3. Whom did he blame for what had happened?

Ans Peter Pan.

* Answer in Detail :-

Q.1. Why was Wendy given a separate room?

Ans: Wendy told wonderful stories to Michael and John ~~who~~ about a magical place called Neverland with Mermaids, fairies and pirates. The boys loved playing pirates but their father disliked them playing these games. He blamed Wendy for this and was then given a separate room.

Q.2 Why did the children go to Neverland with Peter Pan?

Ans: Peter Pan invited the children to the Neverland to enjoy themselves there. He also told that Wendy could tell some of her wonderful stories to his friends too.

Q.3. How did Captain Hook get Tinker Bell to tell him where Peter Pan lived?

Ans: Captain Hook tricked Tinker Bell and told her it would be nice if they could kidnap Wendy. Hook promised that he would not hurt Peter Pan. Hook showed her a map of Neverland and in return she showed him the road to Peter's secret house.

Q.4 When did the boys start feeling homesick?

Ans. When Wendy was tucking her brothers into bed at night, she talked about their parents and their home in London. The boys felt homesick and wanted to go home.

Q.5. Why did Captain Hook kidnap the children? Who saved them?

Ans. Captain Hook wanted to take revenge against Peter Pan who had cut his hand. When Peter Pan came flying in with the children, Captain Hook saw them and started shooting them. Soon he took the Jinker Bell and kidnapped the children from Peter's secret house. Finally Peter Pan flew swiftly and fought with Hook and saved the children.

Q.6. Briefly write about the children's adventure in Neverland.

Ans. Wendy, Michael and John enjoyed their bed time stories about a magical island called the Neverland. Peter Pan came to their home and invited them to Neverland with their happy thoughts, faith, trust and a bit of Tinker Bell's pixie dust, they flew with Peter and Tinker Bell to Newland. As soon as they <sup>the Newland captain</sup> entered, <sup>Hook</sup> started shooting cannon balls at them. But Tinker Bell took them safely to Peter's secret house. Hook tricked Tinker Bell and reached Peter's secret house and kidnapped the children ~~to~~ as he wanted to take revenge against Peter. But soon Peter flew swiftly and fought with Captain Hook and saved the children.

—X—